

Frequently Asked Questions

How much does the exam cost?

The exam costs $300 USD.

How long will the exam take?

Candidate's have a maximum of 3 hours to complete the exam.

How is the exam proctored?

The certification exam is proctored remotely during the exam session via streaming audio, video, and screensharing feeds, or in-person at special Cloud Foundry events offering in-person examinations .

The screensharing feed allows proctors to view candidates' desktops (including all monitors). The audio, video, and screen sharing feeds will be stored for a limited period of time in the event that there is a subsequent need for review.

What are the system requirements to take the exam?

Candidates must provide their own front-end hardware to take exams, including a computer with:

- Chrome or Chromium browser
- reliable internet access
- webcam
- microphone

The workstation on which the hardware (i.e. desktop or laptop) is placed must, aside from the required hardware, reveal a clean surface with no obstructions overhead or underneath. Candidates should ensure that their webcam is capable of being moved in case the proctor requests that the Candidate pan their surroundings to check for potential violations of exam policy.

Candidates should run the compatibility check tool provided by the Exam Proctoring Partner to verify that their hardware meets the minimum requirements.. Select "Linux Foundation" as the Exam Sponsor and "CFCD" as the Exam. (At this time, only Chrome and Chromium browsers are supported.)

What resources am I allowed to access during my exam?

Candidates may use their Chrome or Chromium browser to open one additional tab in order to access assets at docs.cloudfoundry.org, apidocs.cloudfoundry.org, v3-apidocs.cloudfoundry.org, plugins.cloudfoundry.org, as for reference during the exam. Additionally, you are also allowed to access applications deployed during the exam as part of completing performance based items (on the *.scapp.io or *.applicationcloud.io domains).

No other tabs may be opened and no other sites may be navigated to.

The allowed sites above may contain links that point to external sites.

It is the responsibility of the candidate not to click on any links that cause them to navigate to a domain that is not allowed.

May I take notes during the exam?

Yes, you can take notes using the Notepad feature accessible in the top menu bar of the exam console, or use a text file in the command line terminal. Please be aware that notes entered here will not be retained or accessible after the exam has ended. Ask your proctor if you need help operating the Notepad.
